connect. inform. develop.

The Chamber of Commerce is the best in member services, providing our members with aggressive business advocacy on a local, state and federal level all while actively creating a climate for business and employer growth at all levels (from idea to success) encouraging a prosperous community for all.

We have spent the last year successfully providing our members with opportunities to make enormous progress and change by connecting you with the community, informing you on what great things and talented people we have here and encouraging you to develop yourself, your employees and your business.

In 2015-2016, I encourage our members to think about how much time you and your employees spend working on the future? Are you developing your employees for future success?

In 2014-2015 we actively engaged with over 10,000 members with over 126 programs that Connect | Inform | Develop our members and we look forward to continuous improvement and progress in 2015-2016.

Thank you for being a part of our organization.

President

Strategic Vision and Achievements

1. The Battle Creek Area Chamber of Commerce shall educate the general public on the economy and business roles in the greater community.
2. The Battle Creek Area Chamber of Commerce shall fight for public policy and private partnerships that are conducive to employer growth and community development.
3. The Battle Creek Area Chamber of Commerce shall retain and attract members through value added programming.
4. The Battle Creek Area Chamber of Commerce shall act as a catalyst or conduit for partnering and strengthening the business climates in the communities we serve.

member ribbon cuttings

Our ribbon cutting ceremonies inaugurate the opening of a new building or a new business, celebrate an anniversary, a remodel or other milestone, and encourage entrepreneurship and investment in businesses and the community.

We provide the large red scissors and ceremonial RED ribbon. We invite members, guests, and local political leaders as well as encourage you to promote this to your clientele and potential clients.

To set up a ribbon cutting, contact 269.962.4076

Times are changing. Now more than ever, your business needs the confidence, connections, and resources that come with a strong Chamber. We help build the economy, the community, and connect businesses to the people and resources that get things done.

The Chamber shapes a community that people and businesses love. We believe a good community can get people in the door, but it's a truly inclusive and magnetic community that gives them reasons to stay.

More than 600 members, like these featured in our ribbon cuttings, have discovered how the Battle Creek Area Chamber of Commerce can help them make good business happen. How may we help you?
